

Dictionary of American History

Charles Scribner's Sons

Publisher's

597 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017

6 April 1973

Mr. Angus MacLean Thuermer
Assistant to the Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Thuermer:

Thank you so much for your letter of 2 April. As you requested, I am enclosing a copy of our Directions to Contributors in which we have tried to answer most of your questions about method and style. If the article on the Central Intelligence Agency is prepared in reasonable conformity to its recommendations, our editorial burdens will be considerably lightened.

As in the previous edition, we do not plan to include illustrations in the revised Dictionary. We thank you, however, for offering to provide us with pictures.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to write or to phone (212-486-4031).

With kind regards, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Louise F. Bilehof
Administrative Editor

enc.

EDITORIAL BOARD: Harold W. Chase Thomas C. Cochran Jacob E. Cooke

Robert W. Daly Wendell Garrett Robert Multhauf

Approved For Release 2004/09/03 : CIA-RDP88-01314R000100430023-3

MANAGING EDITOR: Joseph G. E. Hopkins

ADMINISTRATIVE EDITOR: Louise F. Bilehof